MISS GERTRUDE MUSE.

The Grim Reaper this morning entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Muse of West Second street and at 7 o'clock the spirit of their eldest daughter, Gertrude, passed to the Great Beyond.

The announcement of her death will cause genuine sorrow to her many friends throughout the city.

Several weeks ago she was stricken with diphtheria, and though suffering a severe attack she was carefully nursed through the terrible disease and was thought to be almost well. She had recovered sufficiently to be about her room, and was seemingly in a fair way to again shortly mingle with her devoted school mates.

Sunday, however, she was again taken very ill, and although all that medical science could prescribe was done for her relief she passed away this morning.

Gertrude Muse was sixteen years of age—that period when life seems happiest and best.

She was this year a member of the Graduating Class of the Maysville High School and her classmates today mourn the loss of one of their most popular members.

To her bereaved parents and little sister the sympathy of the entire community goes out.

No arrangements for the funeral have yet been made.

MRS. ELIZABETH PARK.

Mrs. Elizabeth Park, born near Minerva about eighty-five years ago, died the past week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. L. Wagh, at Hamilton, O.

Her maiden name was Elizabeth Manne, and she was a daughter of General John Manne and Charity Crilfield, two of the very oldest and most prominent of the pioneer families of Mason county.

She was first married to Mr. William Soward and two daughters, Mrs. Kate Hamilton and Mrs. Faule Wagh, were born to them.

Mr. Soward died about thirty years ago and she afterwards married Mr. Park of near Higgsport, who passed away about fourteen years since.

Mrs. Park's remains were interred at Rural, O.

Rabbits are reported very scarce in this section.

Mr. J. I. Salisbury left yesterday for St. Augustin, Fla., where he will spend the winter.

Mrs. Mary Foley has been appointed guardian of her five minor children, with Thomas Foley surety on bond.

Miss Myra Duke entertained last night in honor of Miss Bass, the charming guest of Miss Katie Clay Cox.

The Mite Society of the Third Street M. E. Church will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock with Mrs. Holiday.

The Hon. Harvey McCutchen of Russellville will succeed the Hon. J. M. Richardson as member of the State Board of Prison Commissioners.

Elijah Raborn, aged 32 and feeble-minded, got lost in a field near his home Friday night and was found the next morning frozen to death.

The Mite Society of the First Baptist Church will meet with Mrs. Edward Mitchell of East Second street Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

This is the season of year when the good office of the Mayor is sought by the penitents and people in distress. Scarcely a day passes that he is not besought by indigents who seek transportation from this city to the next town. Saturday he assisted three, two old men and a woman, on their way.

A PEN PICTURE

Of William Finn, in Jail Here Under Robbery Indictment

Much has been said and written about William Finn, incarcerated in Jail here, but little of the man's history has ever come to light. The following is from the pen of a gentleman in this city who is in a position to know whereof he speaks, and he writes of the unfortunate young man as follows—

Ever since William Finn, alias Thomas Lowrey, was arrested in October, 1903, charged with nipping a diamond from William R. Varian, the public press has frequently referred to the circumstance that influential men were interested in him, and since those men were Democrats it was hinted at that Finn was evidently a political henchman and thereby obtained his "pull."

It seems, however, from recent developments that these surmises were wide of the mark.

The true story of the influence back of him is to the effect that in St. Paul, Minn., Finn's father was Lieutenant of Police, beloved by the entire force and greatly admired by the Chief for his bravery.

Some two years ago, in a riot, he was killed while faithfully discharging his duty and his fate was mourned by the entire city.

He left surviving him a widow and several children, some of them small, among them William.

When the mother of William heard of his arrest in Maysville, she went to the Chief of Police of St. Paul in her distress and enlisted his sympathies.

A short time prior thereto a meeting of the Chiefs of Police from all the important cities of the United States had been held in Louisville and St. Paul's Chief had attended and became very friendly with Louisville's Chief, and to help the widow of his dead Lieutenant he communicated with the Chief of Police of Louisville, who in turn communicated with Joseph Pugh, the Chief of Police of Covington, who, being made conversant with the great agony of William's mother and sister, did attempt to render some aid to the unfortunate young man and while his services were intended in the best of good faith yet they were of no aid to him, quite the worse.

There are no moneyed or political friends behind Finn, it seems, and the only influence that has ever been exerted to save him from long imprisonment are the appeals of an agonizing mother and the tears and sobs of a broken-hearted fifteen-year-old sister.

But these are potent factors in this world, and are often more to be relied on than are the efforts of those of great place and favor.

In the event young Finn obtains his freedom it is to be hoped he will spend the remainder of his days striving to make happy and prosperous those members of his family who have stood so valiantly and lovingly by him in the days of his misfortune.

John Sidwell of South Ripley has purchased a farm of 55 acres below Chillicothe, O., and will move to same with his family next March.

A rather remarkable run was made by a Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad special train going West Friday from Norfolk, Va. This train had on board 113 recruits en route from Norfolk to Chicago. The average running time from Norfolk to Cincinnati was 44½ miles an hour for the entire distance, including stops. The train was turned over to the Big Four in Cincinnati and the same schedule was maintained to Chicago.

The Managers of the Maysville Tobacco Fair are planning to have a grand concert at the Opera-house on the morning of the day of the Fair. Some very entertaining features will be included. ## Grip Quickly Knocked Out.

Some weeks ago during the severe winter weather both my wife and myself contracted severe colds, which speedily developed into the worst kind of grippe with all its miserable symptoms," says Mr. J. S. Edleston of Maple Landing, Iowa. "Knees and joints aching, muscles sore, head stopped up, eyes and nose running, with alternate spells of chills and fever. I began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and the same with a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and by its liberal use soon completely knocked out the grippe." These Tablets promote a healthy action of the bowels, liver and kidneys, which is always beneficial when the system is congested by a cold or attack of the grippe. For sale by all Druggists.

According to statistics gathered by the City Assessor, there is $26,000,000 worth of property exempt from taxes in Louisville, all of it belonging to religious, charitable and educational institutions.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. John O. Perry, former Sheriff of Jessamine county, died at Nicholasville of pneumonia.

The Sunday-school children of the Christian Church will reverse the usual order of things by dispensing charity instead of being the recipients of gifts during the yuletide season. The children have evidently been reading Bible lessons where it speaks of he who gives being more blessed than he who receives, so this year instead of having a Christmas tree they will distribute gifts among the worthy, needy poor, thereby increasing their own pleasure as well as bringing joy and gladness to the hearts of their less fortunate brothers and sisters in Christ. It is a thoughtful and beautiful idea in thus remembering the poor and for the time being causing them to forget the toils of a weary existence by a short season of unalloyed pleasure.

The men of eighty-five and ninety years of age are not the rotund, well-fed, but thin, spare men who live on a slender diet. He as careful as he will, however, a man past middle age will occasionally eat too much or of some article of food not suited to his constitution, and will need a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to cleanse and invigorate his stomach and regulate his liver and bowels. When this is done there is no reason why the average man should not live to old age. For sale by all Druggists.

How Several Members of Family Distinguished Themselves

As an evidence of what great changes have taken place in this section within the memory of those of the older class it may be stated that of a large and well known family there isn't now one of the name here.

This family numbered among its members a College President, a distinguished Western Jurist, a prominent Southern lawyer, one of the most profound lawyers of this state, a Colonel of a Louisiana Regiment killed in battle from his adopted state, and the father an intimate friend of Henry Clay.

A different class altogether is now the order of the day.

A FEW EXTRACTS

From the Sermon of Dr. John C. Molloy Sunday Morning

At the Central Presbyterian Church Sunday morning Dr. John C. Molloy spoke on Proverbs XVI, 32: "He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty, and he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city," the topic being "True Heroism Lies in Self-mastery."

He spoke of extreme sensitiveness as not a work of culture, but of its lack, and of the evils of a capricious and irritable spirit unrestrained, meekness, humility and a forgiving temper being traits of true greatness. The fables of Hercules conquering everything but his own furious temper and dying in agony through the Nessus's spirit finds a parallel in the life of Alexander, conqueror of the world, torn with remorse over the murder of his best friend and self-destroyed by a drunken debauch. To say you are "mad" instead of angry is bad English, but a thoroughly angry man is liable to be a mad man. The true hero should not be the sport of his own passions at any point. Shakespeare introduces characters not to point a moral but to adorn a tale, but in holding the mirror up to nature he makes his characters unflinchingly paint a moral, as does history—an intentionally. The Macbeths, Richard the Third, King John and others show the awful fruit of unrestrained ambition. Othello, strong, calm and brave, is involved in pitiful ruin when Iago arouses the terrible passion which consumes him. Mark Anthony, the greatest man in the world after Julius Caesar's death, dies a martyrdom through the domination of a guilty passion. Timon of Athens, a victim of cynicism, is really the victim of selfishness. Ingratitude could never have sorrowed the Apostle Paul or Jonathan Edwards. Lear, Goneril and Regan in varying degrees illustrate the evils of selfishness also. Shakespeare shows that unbridled human passions are the spades with which men dig the graves of their happiness, their bodies and their souls. Real life but confirms his teaching. Some "great men" have been slain by even a whisky bottle.

The great battleground of earth is within the human breast. There alone the soul fights, and wins, or surrenders, and perishes. And yet none need fight alone. The good God says to each man, "My grace is sufficient for thee," and with His help freely offered and freely given every soul can win the victor's crown.

The Emperor and Empress of Russia usually give five Court balls during the season. The first embraces all who have any title to recognition, and counts about 3,000 guests. The second includes something under 2,000, and the number is reduced with each successive ball, until the fifth is 400, or possibly 500.

NINE-FOOT CHANNEL

Approved By Rivers and Harbors Committee for the Ohio

Advocates of a nine-foot channel in the Ohio river will have cause for rejoicing before the present session of Congress ends. It has been practically decided by the House Committee on Rivers and Harbors to commit the Federal Government to the great project.

Ten days ago the Committee concluded to make provision for a preliminary survey, but it will now go even further than that. An appropriation is to be recommended to create a nine-foot stage for a distance of thirty miles below Pittsburgh by changing the size of locks and dams Nos. 1 to 6 or 7, inclusive.

To increase the dimensions of these works will cost, it is estimated, less than $400,000 in addition to the original cost, which averages almost $1,000,000 for each lock and dam.

When the Committee does this it will virtually make it incumbent upon Congress to enlarge the entire system down the river. Already the construction of thirty-seven locks and dams calculated to give a six foot depth as far as Cincinnati has been authorized.

The needs of the lower river are as urgent as those at Pittsburgh, and, therefore, the success of the entire nine-foot project will be assured when that depth is given to the upper end of the stream.

Miss Hapgood tells how she was cured of Fallopian and Ovarian Inflammation—and escaped an awful operation by using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I suffered for four years with what the doctors called Salpingitis (inflammation of the fallopian tubes) and ovaritis, which are most distressing and painful ailments, affecting all the surrounding parts, undermining the constitution, and sapping the life forces. If you had seen me a year ago, before I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and had noticed the sunken eyes, hollow complexion, and general emaciated condition, and compared that person with me as I am today, robust, hearty and well, you would not wonder that I feel thankful to you and your wonderful medicine, which restored me to new life and health in five months, and saved me from an awful operation."—Miss IRENE HARGOOD, 1022 Sandwich St., Windsor, Ont.

Ovaritis or inflammation of the ovaries or fallopian tubes which adjoin the ovaries may result from sudden stopping of the monthly flow, from inflammation of the womb, and many other causes. The slightest indication of trouble with the ovaries, indicated by dull throbbing pain in the side, accompanied by heat and shooting pains, should claim your instant attention. It will not cure itself, and a hospital operation, with all its terrors, may easily result from neglect.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I can truly say that you have saved my life, and I cannot express my gratitude to you in words.

"Before I wrote to you telling how I felt, I had doctored for over two years steady and spent $100 in medicine besides, but it all failed to do me any good. I had daily have my back ache and my head ache and my feet ache and my hands ache and my stomach ache and my nerves ache and my whole system ache and my life was a misery."

My! My! You are growing old fast! And you know why, too. It's those gray hairs! Don't you know that Ayer's Hair Vigor restores color to gray hair? Well, it does. And it never fails, either. It stops falling hair also, and keeps the scalp clean. Sold for sixty years. Lowell, Mass.

The Rev. T. D. Witt Talmage says—
"A newspaper whose columns overflow with the advertisements of business men has more influence in attracting attention to and building up a city or town than any other agency that can be employed. People go where there is business. Capital and labor will locate where there is enterprise and community. No power on earth is so strong to build up a town as newspapers well patronized and this power should be appreciated."
